The Antinori Family is one of the world's oldest and most respected winemaking families, producing wine and making history since 1385, and Marchesi Antinori offers you the opportunity to experience Tuscany's vibrant history, culture, wine and cuisine through its stunning properties.

To start, you'll enjoy a two-night stay in the Antinori family's private house, Villa Tignanello, located in the heart of Chianti Classico. The 16th-century manor house is one of the highest and more picturesque localities in the entire territory.

You'll also enjoy a private tour and lunch at the estate's winery, Tenuta Tignanello. The estate's signature wines, Solaia and Tignanello, have been defined by international press as "among the most influential wines in the history of Italian viticulture."

Then enjoy a private tour of the family's newest winery in Tuscany, Antinori nel Chianti Classico in Bargino. Opened in 2012, this was the first time in 26 generations that the Antinori family inaugurated a new winery. At this stunning site you'll have the opportunity to explore not only exceptional wines, but the innovative architecture of the winery, and the Antinori Art Project. To complete the experience, you'll enjoy lunch at the Rinuccio 1180 restaurant located on the estate.

One evening, you'll dine at the Antinori's Michelin-starred Osteria di Passignano, located in the 19th-century wine cellar next to the historic Abbey of Passignano. Here, you'll dine on course after course of modern dishes firmly rooted in traditional Tuscan cuisine, with superb wines paired with each course. Then Michelin Guide noted this as "one of our most delightful places." The Antinori vineyards around the Abbey are the source for the Chianti Classico Reserve wine Badia a Passignano.

This experience is your passport to the finest Tuscany has to offer, courtesy of the family whose name is synonymous with this region's fine wine, history and culture. Salut!
