Lot 2

If you could do anything in Napa Valley what would it be? We asked our Honorary Chair Gina Gallo this question and she gave us an inside scoop to her favorite illustrious wine-filled adventures in the valley, and you're invited to revel in all of them. Let's kick-off this unforgettable day of festivities by whisking away, with your party of six, in a spectacular hot-air balloon ride above our beautiful Napa Valley in your own private basket.

Next, take in the magnificent views of the valley high atop the Atlas Peak AVA and escape to the exclusive Stagecoach Vineyard for a private, locally-sourced picnic lunch provided by Napa Valley-staple Oakville Grocery.

Conclude the day with a special private food and wine experience in the cellar at the iconic Louis M. Martini Winery, with food prepared by Executive Chef Aaron Meneghelli paired with exclusive rare wines from the Estate.

And, even better, to ensure you are treated to the ultimate experience, you and your guests will enjoy the day worry free with transportation provided to and from Stagecoach Vineyard and Louis M. Martini Winery.

DONORS: Gina Gallo, Oakville Grocery, Louis M. Martini Winery

NOTE: To be scheduled for a mutually agreeable date.

A FEW OF GINA'S FAVORITE THINGS!

Hot air balloon ride for 6

Picnic lunch for 6 at Stagecoach Vineyard

Special food & wine experience at Louis Martini Winery

Lot 3

WOODINVILLE WEEKEND

4-night stay for one couple at Willows Lodge

$300 gift card to Willows Lodge

Dinner for 2 at The Herbfarm

Lunch for 2 at Hollywood Tavern

Wine tasting experience for 2 at Long Shadows

2 bottles of Woodinville Whiskey

2 bottles of Long Shadows Wine

You're off to the Pacific Northwest for a whirlwind four-day celebration of Woodinville's incredible cuisine, wine, and whiskey. This beautiful area is located just 30 minutes from Seattle but feels a world away.

Upon arrival, you'll check into The Willows Lodge, an upscale, modern lodge located in the heart of Woodinville Wine Country, making it the perfect home base for your experience. This resort is located on five acres bordering the Sammamish River, with gardens overflowing with native plants, gorgeous flowers, sculpture, and serene water features. You'll have a Willows Lodge gift card you can use to indulge in a relaxing spa treatment or enjoy dinner at the lodge's acclaimed Barking Frog restaurant.

One evening, you'll dine across the way at five-diamond The Herbfarm, which offers a nine-course menu focused on ingredients that represent this region and its seasons, and are sourced from the restaurant's farm and the greater Pacific Northwest. The menu changes daily and only one seating is offered each evening, making this literally a one-of-a-kind dinner.

Spend your days exploring Woodinville's charms, including a tasting at Long Shadows Tasting Room & Library, and another at Woodinville Whiskey Co., one of the top craft distilleries in the US. Next door to the distillery is the historic Hollywood Tavern, where you will enjoy lunch. Opened in 1947, this wine country tavern and restaurant offers inventive craft cocktails, expressive tavern fare made with fresh, local ingredients and a fun, informal atmosphere.

You'll also receive two bottles of Woodinville Whiskey and two bottles of wine from Long Shadows—a sweet memento of your Woodinville getaway.

DONORS: Providence Hospice and Home Care of Snohomish County

NOTE: To be scheduled for a mutually agreeable date.

Lot 4

PAINT, WINE, & DINE ON GREENFIELD ROAD

Buy-a-seat lot for 10 successful bidders

May 12, 2023

Private watercolor painting experience with Dinah Cross James at the home of Paul & Mary Slawson

Luncheon hosted by Valerie Peebles paired with wines from Buehler
Vineyards & Amizetta Estate Winery

With its views over Lake Hennessey, the home of Paul and Mary Slawson offers an incredible view of Napa Valley seen by few and worthy of a masterpiece painting. In the foreground is their vineyard, Melbury, which was selected by BOND as a representation of the 'Grand Cru' of Napa Valley. And 10 fortunate bidders are invited to the Slawson's home to be surrounded by this spectacular beauty and create their own masterpiece on May 12, 2023.

Ah, but you don't paint, you say? Not to worry, Valerie Peebles and her Greenfield Road neighbors have put together an elevated Napa Valley version of the paint & sip party: the paint, wine & dine party.

You'll arrive at the Slawson's St. Helena home for a private watercolor lesson with noted Napa Valley artist Dinah Cross James. Dinah will provide all the art supplies and guide you through creating a masterpiece. Afterwards, your groups will celebrate your newfound creativity with an artfully inspired luncheon complete with the liquid masterpieces of Greenfield Road vintners Buehler Vineyards and Amizetta Estate Winery.

You'll depart with your watercolor and some Greenfield Road wine as mementos of your art-filled day.

DONORS: Valerie Peebles, Paul and Mary Slawson, Dinah Cross James, Buehler Vineyards, Amizetta Estate Winery

NOTE: Bidding for this buy-a-seat lot starts at $500 per person. Date for luncheon is May 12, 2023 and is not changeable.

Lot 5

WINEMAKER DINNER AT LA TOQUE WITH BOESCHEN VINEYARDS

Dinner for 8 at La Toque, prepared by Owner/Executive Chef Ken Frank and hosted by Boeschon Vineyards Winemaker Doug Boeschon

La Toque Owner/Executive Chef Ken Frank has joined forces with vintner Doug Boeschon to create an elevated food and wine pairing experience at this intimate private dinner party for eight.

Chef Frank's tasting menus are considered by many to be the ultimate wine and food experience, drawing upon an amazing network of local farmers and purveyors for exceptional seasonal ingredients, brilliantly paired with their curated wine list. His work has earned La Toque a Michelin Star every year stars have been awarded in wine country, and Wine Spectator's highest honor, The Grand Award, for its wine list and service excellence.

For this evening he'll pair each course with wines from Napa Valley's Boeschon Vineyards, which for 20 years, has produced limited-production wines from its eleven-acre estate. This vineyard possesses a variety of soil types, topography and micro-climates that are ideal for Bordeaux varietals.

Winemaker Doug Boeschon will host the table, sharing a selection of wines from the Boeschon portfolio, which includes their Winchester Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon (produced only in exceptional years from its best barrels of estate Cabernet Sauvignon), estate Cabernet Sauvignon, Carrera Red Blend and Sauvignon Blanc.

A one-of-a-kind evening, from start to finish.

DONORS: Ken Frank, La Toque, and Boeschon Vineyards

NOTE: To be scheduled for a mutually agreeable date.

Lot 6

ULTIMATE NASHVILLE WINE & FOOD WEEKEND

February 22-26, 2023

- 4 nights accommodations for 1 couple
 - 2 tickets to 2023 Nashville Wine Auction's Wined Up! and Pairings events
 - 2 passes to visit Country Music Hall of Fame
 - $250 gift card to dinner at Bourbon Steak (and assistance with reservations)
 - Gift cards to Arnold's Country Kitchen and Biscuit Love

Nashville is known for its vibrant country music scene, but its food, art and culture make it just as attractive to those who don't know their George Strait from their Dierks Bentley... And two lucky souls get to explore one of Travel + Leisure's "Friendliest Cities in the World" as special guests of Nashville Wine Auction's Ultimate Wine & Food Weekend, in February 2023.

Upon arrival on February 22, you'll check in to the Thompson Nashville hotel. Located in The Gulch neighborhood, this luxury boutique hotel puts you within steps of the Frist Art Museum, Music Row, Honky Tonk Highway, and numerous boutiques.

On February 23, start your Nashville experience with a true Southern "meat and three" lunch at Arnold's Country Kitchen, a James Beard American Classics Award winner, then spend your afternoon browsing The Country Music Hall of Fame. In the evening, you have reservations at Bourbon Steak, a luxury dining experience offering 360-degree views of the Nashville skyline. Use your $250 gift card toward a phenomenal dinner with an amazing view!

On February 24, your day begins with brunch at Nashville's favorite, Biscuit Love. But save room, because later you'll attend the Nashville Wine Auction's Wined Up! where you'll taste wines from 25 West Coast vintners while bidding on wine and luxury items in the evening's silent auction.

On February 25, enjoy some free time to visit the Frist Art Museum, wander the Lower Broadway Honky Tonks, browse Cheekwood Estate & Gardens, tour world-famous music studios, or simply relax. That evening, you'll take part in the Nashville Wine Auction's Pairings, with a reception followed by a five-course meal showcasing wine and cuisine from featured vintners and chefs accompanied by a spirited live auction, the proceeds of which support the fight against cancer.

Cheers to four days of Southern hospitality and American creativity at its best.

DONORS: Nashville Wine Auction and Caymus Vineyards

NOTE: The date for this trip is February 22-26, 2023 and is not changeable.

GENERATIONS LUNCHEON

*Buy-a-Seat Lot for 30 Women
March 31, 2023*

Lunch at Far Niente Winery with Beth Nickel,
Shari and Shannon Staglin,
Elizabeth Swanson and Alexis Swanson Traina

Some of the best ideas and stories are passed from generation to generation, so Beth Nickel, proprietress of Far Niente Winery, has brought together mother-daughter duos from the “Napa Valley class of 1985:” two winemaking families who launched eponymous labels that are synonymous with Napa Valley. They’ll share their unique perspectives and stories on Napa Valley and its wines at this very special luncheon.

Shari Staglin is co-owner and CEO of Staglin Family Vineyard and her daughter Shannon serves as President of the estate. Staglin Family Vineyard takes pride in its stewardship of its historic Rutherford Bench estate and its mission to produce world-class wines that reflect the distinctive character of this singular site.

Elizabeth Swanson founded Swanson Vineyards with her husband, Clarke, in Oakville. Their daughter Alexis Swanson Traina served as creative director. The family operated the winery for more than 30 years before selling it in 2016.

With idyllic Far Niente as the setting for this springtime lunch, you’ll enjoy beautiful seasonal cuisine to be paired with wines from these outstanding vintners. As the wine and conversation flow, these women will share some of their insights, favorite stories and little-known tales of Napa Valley, its history, and its people. It promises to be an enlightening and entertaining afternoon.

DONORS: Beth Nickel, Shari Staglin, Shannon Staglin, Elizabeth Swanson, and Alexis Swanson Traina

NOTE: Bidding for this buy-a-seat lot starts at $1,000 per person. Date for lunch is March 31, 2023 and is not changeable.
